PA NEW OBSERVES

A former local resident, now residing in California, writes that Josiah Hopkins, pastor of the Little Country church of Hollywood, will be on the air next Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, with a program he has dedicated to "Flowers for the Living Day". Results of the recent dust storm, which swept over the district from the west, are more in evidence following recent showers. Pa New noticed that windows in homes and office buildings are covered with yellow spots, where the rain drops struck on the dust covered panes.

BERLIN, April 1.—A peace-time army of at least four million men by 1950.

This is the ambitious plan and goal of Chancellor Adolf Hitler, International News Service learned today.
The figure represents the minimum provided for in his conscription decree of March 16. The men will be called up from the classes of 1901 to 1915 inclusive, and within 15 years the four million will be receiving military training.
During the four years of the World War, Germany summoned 10,000,000 men from the classes of 1900 back to 1870 inclusive.

County Teachers Getting Ready For Close Of Schools

Requests Must Be Made For Attendance Seals And Certificates, Sylling States

Schools in the rural district of Lawrence county are now entering on their last month, many of the schools having set April 25 as the date on which the term will end this year, County Superintendent of Schools, John C. Sylling, stated this morning.
Teachers have been requested to make known the number of perfect attendance certificates and seals they need for their pupils at once, as these must be requisitioned from Harrisburg, and the time for securing them is growing shorter.

German Youths Are Pouring Into Army

(BULLETIN)
BERLIN, April 1.—At the rate of several hundred a day, young men have been pouring into the German army in advance of the reintroduction of conscription, it was learned authoritatively today.
Conscription is not expected to be imposed until after the British-French-Italian conference on European rearmament at Stresa, April 11, and youths, by enlisting before April 13, have the privilege of choosing their own detachments.
While the army ranks are known to be swelling, reports published aboard that 500,000 youths born in 1915 were ordered to appear today for medical examination preparatory to conscription were officially branded as false.

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS AIRED AT HEARING

Mellon Relates That He Did Not Personally Prepare Income Tax Reports

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 1.—In a low, faltering voice, Andrew W. Mellon, multi-millionaire former secretary of the treasury, today denied emphatically he conspired to defraud the federal government of taxes on his 1931 income by making "shadow sales" of stock and taking "fictitious" losses.

Testifying before the U. S. Board of Tax Appeals, Mellon, appearing shy and unfamiliar with the role of witness, gave a detailed account of his financial affairs for 1931. He denied he sold stock to Union Trust Company with the understanding that it would be repurchased after the end of the year.

"Did you consciously omit the formality of taking an oath before a notary so you would not be bound by it?" asked his chief counsel, Frank J. Hogan.

"I certainly did not," Mellon replied.

Refer To 1931 Action

Hogan referred to Mellon's 1931 income tax return which was not signed by a notary until after the former secretary of the treasury affixed his signature to it.

"The notary understood the gravity of the oath," the financier, seeking a $139,045 refund on his 1931 tax payment, asserted.

Mellon's testimony was designed to knock down the case built up by the government which seeks $3,089,261 in additional taxes and penalties on his 1931 income.

The multi-millionaire whose personal fortune in December 1931, was estimated at $200,000,000, casually admitted he never prepared an income tax return himself and expressed explicit faith in the man (Continued On Page Thirteen)

Palmer Is Held In Axe Murder

(Special To The News)

GROVE CITY, April 1.—LeRoy Palmer, aged 28, of Grove City, charged with the ax murder of Howard Sidley, who was found dead in his filling station on March 16, was bound over to the June term of court today, as the result of a hearing in the office of Squire O. E. Irwin in Grove City last week.

Palmer was arrested two hours following the crime.

Await Governor's Action.

The Republican senate majority having delivered a stinging defeat to the executive's $40,000,000 gasoline tax bill, remained unwilling to bear the onus of suggesting new tax measures to finance a Democratic administration and waited upon the governor to offer the olive branch.

Meanwhile, with the threat that federal funds will be cut off from Pennsylvania after April 15 unless the state bears a share of the burden, the number of persons receiving relief reached a new record high of 1,733,893 for the week ending March 23 while direct relief costs topped $3,000,000 a week for the first time.

In the Democratic house Rep. James P. Rooney, Allegheny county's lone Republican representative, was to make the first move to break the deadlock by attempting to release from committee his bill for a state sales tax. The measure has languished in the ways and means committee since February 12 while the house pushed the gasoline tax program over to the senate.

New Suggestion.
A new suggestion that all tax bills be limited to one year, to be re-enacted by a special session if the fiscal emergency continues to exist after that time, received attention of Republican and Democratic leaders (Continued On Page Two)

State Tax Situation Deadlock Unbroken; Await Earle's Move

By SYDNEY H. EIGES

HARRISBURG, April 1.—Pennsylvania's critical fiscal situation reached a stage of deadlock today as both Gov. George H. Earle and Republican majority in the senate flatly refused to compromise on the executive's 22-point $205,000,000 revenue program.

Carrying his appeal directly to the voters, the governor again demanded enactment of his tax program which he charged "special interests" were striving to wreck and reiterated his opposition to a sales tax, understood to be favored by the Republicans.

U. S. Seeks To Dismiss N. R. A. Suit In Court

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, April 1.—In the face of vehement protests the government today moved to dismiss the Belcher NRA case pending before the supreme court.

With this action, virtually all chance of a clear cut decision on constitutionality of the national recovery act before the court adjourns about June one was dissipated.

Stanley Reed, the new solicitor general, filed the motion of dismissal with the clerk of court.

When the decision was made the department of justice announced that the Belcher case did not furnish an adequate basis for a test of constitutionality of NRA.

Defer Allocation Of Relief Funds

Federal Administration Holds Up Funds For Month Of April

TWENTY STATES GIVEN WARNING

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Apr. 1.—With only $4,000,000 on hand to meet relief requirements estimated at $167,000,000 for April, federal emergency administration today deferred allocations to all states for April relief.

Operating since January on borrowed funds from other departments, the relief administration was informed today by acting director of the budget C. H. Fullaway that only $9,000,000 of impounded funds of other governmental agencies is available for possible use.

This, with the $4,000,000 of emergency relief funds, would last only about two and one half days at the March rate of expenditures, which averaged $5,250,000 daily.

April Estimate $167,000,000
The April estimate of expenditures of $167,000,000 was the same as for March.

Although the PWA and interior departments have $48,000,000 of impounded funds, Fullaway said that only $9,000,000 of this could be transferred without congressional action.

At the same time, the FERA stood pat on its demands on Mis- (Continued On Page Two)

MOSCOW, April 1.—Capt. Anthony Eden, in the name of the British government, told Soviet authorities that any war against the Soviet Union would be opposed to Britain's interests, the Bolshevik state's official mouthpiece, Izvestia, asserted today.

This statement was made in a two-column front page editorial jubilantly assessing the results of the British Lord Privy Seal's visit, which ended in mutual pledges of cooperation for "collective organization of security."

Soviet Enthused

Pravda, organ of the Communist party, likewise hailed the conversation as of "tremendous political importance."

The accord manifest when Capt. Eden took his departure for Warsaw yesterday shows that Adolf Hitler did not succeed in impressing the British with his thesis of the Bolshevik menace, said Pravda.

"England, by her declaration through Capt. Eden that she is interested in the integrity of the U. S. S. R., has refuted the German desire to dismember the Soviet Union."

The talks, said Pravda, "led to very important political results" (Continued On Page Thirteen)

"My business is picking up every day, but I am scared."

"I am doing better than I have since '29, but when are we going to get back to the good old days?"

Well, the good old days with most of us was when we didn't earn enough to pay an income tax.

BIG NAVY APPROPRIATION IS SEEN

Navy Building To Be Speeded

Backers Of Larger Navy See Approval Of Fund Allotment

PLAN TO INCREASE NAVY TO TREATY LIMIT

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 1.—With war clouds hovering over Europe, congress will be called upon within the next two weeks to appropriate $140,000,000 to carry on the big navy building program next year.

Despite the ban on use of public works funds in the future for armaments, backers of the big navy were confident that congress would provide the funds necessary to make the American navy equal to any in the world.

The new construction funds will be carried in the regular annual naval supply bill which big navy leaders said, will total $470,000,000. It will be the biggest naval budget in 15 years.

House Takes Action

The house has already passed and sent to the senate bills providing $33,000,000 for shore stations, including new fortifications for Hawaii; increasing the officer personnel by 1,032, providing for 500 flying cadets and revising the marine corps promotion list.

The new construction fund will enable the navy to carry on work on 92 ships. The ultimate goal of the navy is 313 vessels by 1942, which will give the United States a navy equal to the limits set in the treaty which Japan abrogated.

Congress, it is said, now almost united for building of an adequate navy to meet all emergencies.

The budget recommendations, to which congress thus far has closely adhered, call for appropriations exceeding $480,000,000 for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Not since 1920, when naval appropriations totaled more than $600,000,000, has the budget been as high. Following destruction of many of the navy's finest warships as a result of the disarmament conference in 1921, annual outlays on the navy began to fall steadily.

ers. Just what the attitude of the governor would be was problematical but there was reason to believe he would consider the suggestion if placed before him. Should such a compromise be acceptable to the senate, the gasoline tax bill could still be revised with five legislative days by reconsideration of the final passage vote.

The senate finance committee of which Sen. John J. McClure is chairman continued meanwhile with further consideration of the governor's tax bills. Hearing on bills taxing insurance companies were held today and hearings on the tobacco and amusement taxes were listed for tomorrow. It was indicated the tobacco and amusement imposts will be reported at once to be killed.

The Woodward-Howell "party-raiding" bill was on the senate calendar for final passage for the third consecutive week with no definite assurance that it will be adopted. Also up for final action in the upper branch was the Shapiro bill providing for the purchase of milk for undernourished school children.

Final passage was expected to be delayed in the house on the Haluska administration bill limiting women's working hours to 40 a week. Already amended several times to exempt women executives and other classes of female labor, additional changes were expected when the bill is brought up finally in the house tonight.

Administration bills to facilitate the state's participation in the president's $4,000,000,000 work program may be introduced in the house tonight. Chief among them is a slum clearance measure.

The house may also take final action this week on the administrative workmen's compensation and milk control bills listed for a public hearing tomorrow. The present milk control act expires May 1 and the new bill must be speedily re-enacted to continue state control over the industry. A joint senate and house committee will preside at the hearing.

Thomas A. Palmer Funeral.
On Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, funeral services for the late Thomas A. Palmer were held from the residence of James Shearer of Wilmington township. Rev. S. A. Kirkbridge of New Wilmington, was in charge. A large gathering of friends attended the services. Relatives of the deceased served as pallbearers.

Burial was made in Greenwood cemetery.

Ruth Viola Love Funeral.
Funeral services for Ruth Viola Love were held from her late residence, New Castle, R. D. No. 3, Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The services were in charge of the Rev. Jesse McMain, pastor of the Shenango United Presbyterian church of New Wilmington. The choir from the Sabbath school of the church of which Ruth was a faithful member, sang several selections.

The services were largely attended and many beautiful floral tributes filled the rooms.

Pallbearers were Virginia Altman, Helen Wagner, Bernice Wagner, Dorothy Gibson, Dora Eagel and Phyllis McMain.

Burial was made in Graceland cemetery.

John B. Wagner Funeral.
Funeral services for the late John B. Wagner were held Saturday afternoon from the Savannah church with the Rev. J. Henry Boon, pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle, in charge. A large gathering of relatives and friends of the deceased attended.

Pallbearers were relatives, and burial was made in Savannah cemetery.

Albert Nathan Young.
Albert Nathan Young, aged 57 years, of 758 Lathrop street, died suddenly in his home Sunday morning. Mr. Young had arisen about six o'clock and went to the cellar to fix the furnace. When he did not return within a reasonable length of time, Mrs. Young called to him, and getting no response, sent her son Paul to see what was the matter. He found his father sitting on a bench, unconscious. A physician was called, who pronounced him dead as a result of heart trouble.

He had been a resident of New Castle for the past four years, but had lived in Wampum prior to that time, where he operated a lunch room. He was a carpenter by trade.

Surviving is his wife, Mrs. Emma Young, and one son, Paul, at home. Funeral services will take place Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock from the home, in charge of Rev. J. G. Bingham of the Wampum Presbyterian church. Burial will be in Clinton cemetery.

George P. Holliday.

Council Favors Goat Ordinance

Council met in the City building today and upon motion of Councilman Joseph D. Alexander reported favorably from committee a bill which regulates the keeping of goats in this city. The bill will be printed and indications are it will pass. The measure was introduced by Councilman D. O. Davies. The bill provides that before any person can keep a goat, after it is three months old, he must apply for a permit, state the reasons why the goat is desired, and guarantee that the welfare of the community will not be impaired. The license is revocable according to the measure.

C. B. McEwen, owner of the goats complained of, said he did not object to any health measures council would install, but he did believe that a person should be permitted to keep several goats.

E. T. Weaver spoke for those who objected to the goats. He told council that the goats of his property were kept within 70 feet of his property and a continuation of this would depreciate his property.

After McEwen and Weaver had spoken, Councilman Alexander offered the motion to approve the bill. If the measure is violated a fine of $300 can be levied, in default of which a 30 days jail sentence can be imposed.

USE NEWSPAPERS

When ready to empty a waste basket it is a very convenient help if several sheets of newspapers are placed in the opening of the incinerator. This acts as a slide and prevents small articles such as match sticks, cigar stubs, etc., from becoming lodged in the hinge of the incinerator door. The paper can easily be pushed away into the chute. No soiled hands and the paper supplies extra paper to aid in burning waste.

PLANE CARRYING PRESIDENT'S NOTES IS FORCED DOWN
Virginia, happened to be near and stood by while a hurried summons to coast guard craft was sent by radio.
Both aircraft were in service during the week-end ferrying between the Normahal, with the President and his party aboard, and Miami. The Normahal was reported still in the Bahamas. The plane was reported in good condition despite the sea-landing.
Funds for relief will be exhausted today, until the new bill passes.

FAITH
We received our statement the other day showing what it cost to administer the code in the small industry which manufactures caskets.
This statement showed that over $100,000.00 had been used up in the last year to pay men, a lot of whom would not be able to make a living in the industry or outside of it. This amount also had to be added to the expenses of the funeral directors of the country who are already donating thousands of dollars toward helping families who have no means. This amount was also supposed to stop price cutting and limit the manufacturing of these kind of goods.
In our thirty-seven years in the business we never saw so much cut-throat and unscrupulous handling of business as there has been in the last year.

DUST STORM HAVOC

ENOUGH havoc was wrought by last year's dust storms in the West to make us all soil-conscious. They were sharp reminders that Old Mother Earth keeps the key to the storehouse from which all our prosperity comes. The menace to large areas of what had seemed to be almost inexhaustibly fertile land was real.

The winds that once spread this rich soil over the great central plain are now stealing it away, and it is not fanciful to imagine that great areas will return to desert, as had happened in other parts of the world.

Tourists driving from the Yellowstone to the Mississippi last summer reported that they did not see a grain field bigger than they could find in any Eastern state. The whole country was bleak and desolate. Now the winds are at it again, doing damage that cannot be repaid in years and making thousands of once comfortable people desolate. Human wisdom is challenged to battle against these natural forces. That is the eternal struggle those who traffic with nature have to wage. If it isn't wind, it's drought. If it isn't drought, it's excessive rain or excessive cold. And such enemies as bugs and plant diseases have to be combated all the time.

When crossed or interfered with, nature can be a bad actor. Yet we are all slow to respect her laws. Greed and overenthusiasm, expressed in breaking up the grass covering nature had laid upon the rich soil of the plains is held largely responsible for the wind-blown soil. Turning natural grazing lands into plowed fields and other trifling with nature's way of doing things have created havoc. Now we have to find ways to undo the harm done, or at least to prevent further damage.

Time, as we measure it, doesn't mean much to nature. We shall be a long time paying for the mistakes made. It will cost a lot of money. But nature will lick us if we don't fight back with all the intelligence and resourcefulness we can command.

ONLY WAY TO CUT TAXES

The American people are thoroughly aware by this time of the tax burden they are bearing. There is now a general effort to cut taxes. We have always avoided taxes as well as we could individually. Now we are trying to do it collectively.

Several states have sought to ease the tax burden on real estate by a constitutional amendment limiting the number of mills that can be assessed. Similar efforts are made to lower automobile taxes and to outlaw or curtail sales taxes, personal property taxes and intangible taxes.

There is always a rude awakening, though, sooner or later. Property tax limitation is foiled by higher valuations, special levies and bond issues. A tax abolished in one form bobs up in some other form. The only way society collectively can lower taxes is to lower public expenditures.

MERRIWELL ON THE SCREEN

The eagle, according to a more or less reliable tradition, renews its youth by means of a prolonged sleep in a nest on an inaccessible mountain crag, a means to an important end which is hardly practicable for the humans down in the valley.

But, thanks to Hollywood, from which both bad and good comes, the pages of time are to be turned back a few years and the oldsters are to be given an opportunity to recapture some of the delights of youth—delights provided at a cost of five cents and contained between lurid paper covers.

Announcement has been made that the films will present a series of the exploits of Frank Merriwell, the peerless hero of three decades ago, invincible with his fists, with baseball bat and rifle, whose prowess was ever employed against the forces of evil, at whose hands virtue always triumphed regardless of the odds.

The generation that grew up on this surreptitious literature, which was read chiefly in barns, woodsheds and the open fields, far from the critical gaze of parents and teachers, will welcome the return of the idol of youthful years. He should produce a rejuvenating effect.

CASUAL INVENTORS

Most inventions of the present are made by men of the highest mechanical and engineering skill, who devote themselves almost exclusively to the discovery and development of improved means for doing every conceivable mechanical job.

In earlier times, however, many epoch-making inventions were produced by casual inventors, most of whom had no special training whatever for such work.

Among these may be mentioned Robert Fulton of steamboat fame, who was a portrait painter; Richard Arkwright, inventor of the loom, who was a barber; Edmund Cartwright, who produced the power loom, was a clergyman; S. B. F. Morse, inventor of the telegraph, was also a noted portrait painter; Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, was a teacher of deaf mutes, and so on through a list which might be almost indefinitely extended.

A questionnaire recently sent to several thousand practical inventors elicited the opinion that even today originality of thought is more important for an inventor than mere mechanical ability; in fact, originality is considered ten times as important.

It seems that there is no fixed rule in the matter, but the weight of experience indicates that inventors are born, not made, and that inventive genius will generally assert itself, with or without special training.

Mr. Hoover has one thing in common with President Roosevelt. Huey Long doesn't like either of them.

Never did demagogues thrive like they do today. But demagogues of old were pikers—they didn't offer $200 for a month's work of spending, or $5,000 for having been born, all to come from the government's coffers.

A Detroit man, who had an income of $2304.07 last year, sent a check for $2304.07 in payment of his income tax. It was considerable of him to save the politicians the trouble of taking it from him in installments.

THE MOUNTAIN

When I was a boy I lived in a valley with mountains at its back and curving arms that ran down to the sea. Behind us there were always the green or brown hills; before us, always, was the wide green ocean.

We went down to the sea to dig clams or to throw our lines far into the surf for little silver fish. We went back to the mountains for wild berries, for vagabonding hikes. Sometimes we played at being adventurers, explorers, along a little stream that came, I think, from a certain peak that rose high above our heads.

I know now that the peak was not so mighty as it seemed, but it was tall enough for us to see it from every corner of our rolling valley. It was big enough for us. Whenever we raised our heads we could see it. In the spring it was green and we could see the cattle, tiny moving specks, on its lower slopes. Later, in winter, it was bare and brown. In winter, not all winters but some of them, it wore a cap of snow that made it seem a wise old man who had his kindly eye upon us. He was the high point of the little lives that went their way below him.

I forget much. I have forgotten names and faces, and many of the days I lived then have passed from my memory and may never return. But it seems to me now that there was never a day when we did not look there to the mountain and take some comfort from its presence.

There are moments in every life of which we can be decently proud. There are days when we are braver, wiser, more unselfish than we thought we could be. Days when we have vision and understanding and did the right thing instinctively.

Those are the good mountains in our little lives. They stand above the common level of our daily existence and they challenge us to repeat them or surpass them. They comfort us and inspire us and they are like that mountain I used to know.

And if we cannot live always on the mountain tops, it is good to live on the mountain slopes. It is good to live at the foot of the mountain, and that once we did climb it—and that some day, strength given, we may climb it again.

NO DISGRACE INVOLVED IN HONEST LABOR

There are many women who do their husbands' great harm by apologetically exclaiming: "Of course, my husband is a working man."

Suppose he is, he has brains has he not?

The way you inject that "working man" phrase into all your conversation, makes one think that you consider him inferior.

Anyone who works is a worker, whether it be in the office or in the ditch.

The ditch digger, too, must know his business.

Is it necessary to stir up class prejudice and make distinctions? No matter what your husband does, if he is industrious and earnest, it is a form of work and is to be respected.

The only one who is not respected is the one who refuses proffered work.

Your husband, perhaps, has had a highly specialized education and would like work in his particular line.

He can't get it and has to take common labor or starve.

He is to be encouraged, not definitely classed, as if he needed sympathy.

In this country it is possible to get out of one class of work into another, and all men are working men!

APRIL FOOL

Comes now the day when she will be engaged in setting traps for me. "The water pipes have burst!" she'll cry.

And quickly to the scene I'll fly To find, instead of pond or pool, A child, exclaiming: "April Fool!"

"You've dropped your handkerchief!" I'll turn.

How gullible I am to learn, "You've torn your overcoat!" I'll

To find the damage and the cause And hear her laugh in triumph when She's April Fooled me once again.

For me today will snare be laid. Ten times a fool shall I be made. Upon a rubber roll I'll bite. An iron match I'll try to light.

And laughter all day long will rule Because her dear old dad's a fool.

Is this but once a year? Ah, no. It happens every day or so.

However wise I try to be, That child can make a fool of me. As mother says: A smile is all I need into her trap to fall!

Many women would not consider marrying a widower because then they wouldn't have the fun of taming them.

Elisa—How did Tony act when he popped the question to you before breakfast this morning?

Hilda—He remarked that "the early bird gets the worm," and that he was going to marry me, and then he grabbed me and squeezed me so tight that I couldn't say anything.

Elisa—That was certainly nice. Hilda—Yes, but how would you like to be called a worm.

Out in Indiana, a farmer residing near Rochester, sued the county commissioners for $500 damages for his shattered nerves, because he saw a man commit suicide. He charges that the county commissioners were negligent in not preventing the suicide. We'd say the suicide was very untactful in committing such a harsh act in front of anyone.

One reason man is called the ultimate consumer is because he is usually the last one to receive any benefit from anything.

GOOD OLD DAYS

"Them was the good old days!" exclaimed one citizen as he stood on the corner and gassed with a little knot of men.

"Yes, you remember our fire department?" asked one. "We used to dress up in red flannel shirts and patent leather helmets."

"Sure thing," added another. "A married man then could go down town two or three times a week to answer a fire alarm and his wife wouldn't kick at all."

The rising generation out on the farms have one advantage over their forefathers, they don't have so many stones to pick. In early days "ere were many stony farms in Lawrence county, and it was generally the boys who were assigned the task of gathering them in piles to be hauled to some convenient dumping ground.

Many mute reminders of those stone picking days can be found scattered over the county, when big piles of stones can be seen even in the center of a field, but usually along a fence-row. Many an old man of today blames his stone picking days for his lumbago. Twenty years from now we suppose a lot of folks will be blaming it on their golfing. Roosevelt Changing Course.
Is He Aligning With Labor.
The Drought And The Farmer.New York Bureau
Central Press
235 East 45th streetBy LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, April 1.—There are indications that the Roosevelt administration will make another change of direction in regard to labor.

Those indications point to a course which will place it more nearly in line with the American Federation of Labor.

The A. F. of L. has been shipping heavy water.

Contrary to advice from a number of "admirals" in high business command, if the A. F. of L. sinks, that will not be an "enemy" sunk, but an ally.

The administration has been learning that these last few weeks.

It doesn't take much of a scouting plane, scouring over the United States, to see why Huey Longs and the Father Coughlins, and any others who may succeed them, have gathered such a "navy."

And every bit of that "fleet" has been chiseled off the administration's own fleet.

THE SITUATION
Dropping hyperbole and speaking straight from the shoulder—the Roosevelt administration has been losing votes by its zig-zag "now-we're-here, now-we're-there" tactics.

It would be splendid to record the history of the government of a great nation in the measure of civil justice. But governments are political, and their acts of justice are forced by political exigencies—except on rare occasions.

Now that discontent causes voters to align themselves with forces that may be damaging to election chances of the administration, we may see once more an attempt to meet that discontent—but with measures that go only part way.

The Roosevelt administration certainly will not accede to anything which does not meet with the president's view that the status quo must be maintained.

"No, but he is an authority on foolishness."

Some women have to do an awful lot of talking to explain what they have been talking about.

So your servant is dumb? Well, you can't expect $100-a-week brains for $6 a week.

Down in Georgia the state legislature is discussing a tax on bachelors, grass widows, and on married men and women not living with their mates. Under the bill it would cost them $250 a year. Looks like a pretty high tax to us, but maybe it would be worth it.

But the worst effect has been on the people themselves.

They have lost confidence. They haven't joined the Communists, in fact they would not know a Communist if they met one.

That is the "worst" of it to the administration. They have heard voices—perhaps as the French heard voices when Joan of Arc heard them.

To such people, an administration or an American Federation of Labor are "red tape" organizations that make promises and then compromise away what one actually has.

That is the feeling among hundreds of thousands. And, if conditions are to be rectified on a basis of status quo, the administration will need not only the American Federation of Labor but the

Boys' Conference Here On Saturday

Fifty-Three Boys From Surrounding Towns Attend Annual Conference

Successful in every detail was the annual Younger Boys' conference, held all day Saturday in the Y. M. C. A. Fifty-three boys, representing New Castle, Sewickley, New Brighton and Tarentum, were in attendance.

Featuring the morning sessions, held in the First Christian church, was an inspiring address on "Promises of an Unpromising Youth" by Dr. C. B. Winger of the Central Presbyterian church. Discussion sessions were led by Don Huffman, New Castle, and L. L. Miller of Tarentum.

Carmin DeLorenzo, of the Benjamin Franklin junior high club, presided, and Donald Gibson, of George Washington junior high school, read the script.

At noon a delicious dinner was served in the Y. M. C. A. D. B. Atwell, general secretary of the Sewickly Y. M. C. A., the dinner speaker, gave a scholarly address on "World Brotherhood." Mr. Atwell recounted his experiences as general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Cairo and Palestine. Robert Blatchford, of this city, amused the gathering with a number of intricate magical tricks.

The conference came to a close late in the afternoon with an exhibition in the boys' department. Many outstanding displays of model airplanes, pyrography, soap carving, leathercraft, archery, metalcraft, brass-tapping and art-stone featured the show. The one day meeting was a decided success. Harry G. McClelland, boys' secretary, was in charge.

Indications are that motorists studied Police Chief John F. Haven's first lesson in safe driving over the week-end. It stated that double parking is not permitted and at noon today no arrests for that specific violation had been made.

according to police who were on the alert in various sections of the city. According to Chief Haven he proposes to issue a lesson relative to city ordinances covering the operation of automobiles every day. The lessons will appear one day in advance and not only motorists but also the police are expected to know the lesson.

The lesson today said that double parking is not allowed and the lesson for Tuesday says that double parking is not allowed although an operator may be at the wheel of the car.

Glacier Priest Tells Of Alaska

Father Hubbard Tells Of Adventures In Alaska To Local Audience

Soaking in a conversational tone that quickly won him over to his audience of approximately 1,100 persons, Father Bernard R. Hubbard, S. J., the "Glacier Priest," appeared on the Cathedral stage on Saturday night to relate experiences of his 1934 expedition into Alaska's volcanic wonderland.

Father Hubbard spoke under the auspices of the Lions club and proceeds of his lecture will go to defray expenses incurred during the coming year in the club's major service project, preventative and curative work among the Lawrence county blind.

The distinguished explorer and geologist was introduced by Ezra D. Marvin, member of the local club and the district governor of Lions Clubs in Western Pennsylvania. He told his audience, in his brief introduction of the club's work for the blind.

Long Film Is Enjoyed

While Father Hubbard's words brought to the audience thrills which he personally experienced, a 100,000 feet motion picture film which took almost two hours to show brought to the eye what the ear may have missed.

The film trailed the expedition into every nook and corner of the "Valley of 10,000 Smokes" where Father Hubbard and his party went. 1934 Trip Set Record

Father Hubbard was making his eighth trip into the volcanoland last year. Never, however, did he meet with such success as he did on the latest. Scientists and others claim it without parallel in respect to adventures encountered, hardships endured, new facts of science uncovered and practical results obtained.

The audience here probably found its greatest thrills from those parts of the film which showed huge slabs of ice as big as skyscrapers tumbling into the sea from ice cliffs higher than the Washington monument and the playful but hardy volcano pups.

Dr. A. H. Borland, president of the club, reported that the proceeds collected were not as yet compiled today. George L. Smith was general chairman for this season's lecture.

For half an hour before the lecture the audience enjoyed the playing of Mrs. Jessie Nelson Reed on the magnificent Cathedral organ.

GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!

"FIRE FIGHTING IS MY JOB," says Stanley Adams, fireman. "It's exciting, yes—but it's difficult, exhausting work, too. There's a lot of pleasure in a Camel, especially when you're tired out. When I feel 'all in,' I like a Camel to freshen me up. Camels give me new 'pep' and energy. Camels have more flavor—and yet they're mild, for I've found I can smoke them steadily and they never upset my nerves. I'm ready any time to 'walk a mile for a Camel!'" (Signed) STANLEY ADAMS comes this comment John L. Filson, class of '36, says: "It's a great relief to smoke a Camel any time I'm tired and quickly experience a delightful return in energy. And boy! do Camels taste good!" (Signed) JOHN L. FILSON, '36

"RUNNING A HOME involves details that use up energy," says Mrs. Ross Kelley. "When things irritate me, I smoke a Camel. Soon I have renewed energy and can go on to the next task. Camels have such a mild flavor, I've become quite a steady smoker." (Signed) MRS. ROSS KELLEY

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver and bowel poisons before breakfast

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach; you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish tang which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

Maybe You Have Money In The Bank

It may surprise you to know it, but you may have some money in any one of the banks in New Castle that has slipped your memory. It hasn't slipped the bank's memory, and don't think we're trying to be facetious in suggesting that anybody could have money in the bank and not know it.

Every bank in New Castle has a list of accounts that haven't been active for years. The money has laid there, the owner has paid no attention to it, and if it isn't lifted for 14 years it is escheated to the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Large Sums
This does not mean a savings account that the owner doesn't wish to draw, for the most part; it means checking accounts, although there are instances where depositors have received sums ranging up to $500 which they know nothing about.

One man received nearly $500 a short time ago which he did not know belonged to him. He had transferred his business to a relative to run for him; the relative closed the business out and died, and it developed that nearly $500 was in the bank, the property of the living brother.

A woman in another city received a notice from a local bank recently asking her to come in and take care of several hundred dollars that belonged to her. She thought the bank was joking, but she finally came in and took the money.

There is a balance of nearly $250 in one of the banks which belongs to a musical organization that existed here some years ago. Since 1928 nothing has been done about the money. In this case the treasurer is in New Castle and is known to the bank.

Goes to the State
There are hundreds of accounts that total a dime, a quarter, or less than a dollar. These are balances of accounts which had not been properly kept by the owner. It is amazing to see the list of accounts that have not been bothered for years. Where such accounts exist the bank carries them for 14 years and then under the law escheats them to the commonwealth. Before this is done the bank makes every effort to get in touch with the owner.

After an estate is escheated the owner can get it by going through considerable red tape.

In the meantime check up your accounts and see if you have one lying in the bank you have forgot-

Cooper presented the honor guest with a purse of money in behalf of the Philaetha Class and also a gift was presented by Miss Franc Calderwood. This was an expression of their appreciation, and was responded to by Rev. Ostermeier in a very fitting manner. Interesting remarks were made by Rev. Labotz of Coitsville.

Pennsy 'Honor Roll' Men Hold Distinction

Retired Rail Groups Probably Without Parallel In Nation Today

Two groups of retired employees, which are believed to be without parallel in the records of any other company or business in the world, are disclosed in the annual report of the Pennsylvania railroad's pension department for 1934.

The first group consists of a list of 51 men carried on the pension rolls, or "roll of honor," each of whom, at the close of 1934, had attained the age of 90 years or over. The second group is composed of 49 men, each of whom had worked for the company 55 years or more at the time of his retirement.

The combined age of the 90-year veterans—the "grand old men of railroading"—was 4,651 years. The dean of the corps, Joseph R. Jones, formerly supervisor of signals on the Philadelphia division, is now in his 100th year, having celebrated his 99th birthday on September 29, 1934.

Annual Y. W. Campaign To Be Launched

Annual Y. W. C. A. Membership, Ingathering Will Open On Wednesday

PRESENT MEMBERS SENDING RENEWALS

With renewals of memberships already flowing in, the vane of the Y. W. C. A.'s annual membership drive is pointing quite definitely toward success.

Formal opening of the campaign will take place in the form of an enthusiastic dinner-meeting of the 95 appointed workers, Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, and the search for new members will continue for two weeks, with the final report on Wednesday, April 17.

Hearty Response
Dr. Mildred Rogers, chairman of the membership committee, has received several interesting letters in the past several days with the 28 renewals of memberships which have been sent to the association. One is from Mrs. S. E. McCleary, of this city, who recently observed her 91st birthday. It follows, in part:

413 Highland Ave., New Castle, Pa.

Dear Doctor:
I am enclosing a one dollar bill. I want it to be in before the canvass begins. I can get my membership card sometime when I am in the Y. W. We must keep the Y. W. alive and working.

Very sincerely,
MRS. S. E. MCCLARY.

Another letter was sent by a member who moved to another city several years ago. It follows, in part:

Dear Dr. Rogers:
I am glad you reminded me of my dues to the Y. W. C. A. I am sending you five dollars so that, if I should be among the army of jobless next year, I will be paid up in advance. If I am fortunate enough to continue in my interesting work this is not an advance payment but only a little help toward work this year.

The 95 board members, committee members and club representatives who make up the team of workers are now responding to the request for lists of 20 women and girls whom they will see during the membership campaign.

Goal Is Thousand
They are notifying Miss Marguerite White, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., and the lists are being checked off on a master file so that there will be as little duplication as possible. It is believed that a larger number of women and girls of the community will be approached this time than ever before and it is hoped that the number of memberships will reach the proposed goal of 1,000. A particular effort will be made to get in touch with all those people who were members of the association at one time but who have not been contacted in recent membership ingatherings.

At the present time the New Castle Young Women's Christian Association has a total membership of 650. This is larger than in former years and indicates that a renewed interest and desire to help support the worthy institution has grown in the hearts of the women and girls of the community during the past several years.

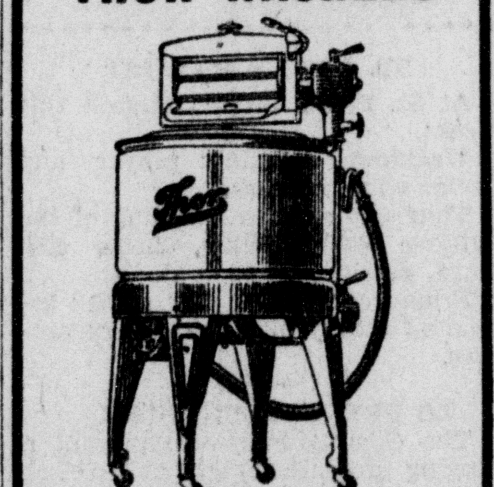

Dr. Rogers announces that work-

SEEK TO FORCE COURT TEST FOR N.R.A.

Senate Drive For Test Starts

Resolution Seeks To Have Constitutionality Of NRA Passed Upon

EXTENSION OF ACT NOW BEING SOUGHT

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Constitutionality of the whole recovery act became a major issue today in the administration's fight to have the NRA extended another two years.

A bipartisan drive developed in the senate to force the government to test the constitutionality of N. I. R. A. before congress acts on President Roosevelt's request for a two-year extension in NRA. The drive was started by Senators Hastings (R) of Delaware, and Clark (D) of Missouri, who jointly prepared a resolution which would place the constitutionality of the act before the senate on record as favoring the constitutional test.

Would Force Issue
The resolution would "respectfully request and urge" the attorney general to prosecute a government appeal to the Supreme court against the ruling of Federal Judge W. I. Grubb in the northern district of Alabama, which held the whole NRA unconstitutional. The government, after first taking steps to appeal this decision, recently abandoned the appeal.

An appeal of the case now would force the highest court to interpret the phrase "interstate commerce," thereby telling the government just how far it can control industry through codes. It also would gain from the highest court a ruling on how far the government can go in regulating wages and hours of labor.

Issues Involved
The issues before the Supreme court, if an appeal is taken, would be whether the NRA and the codes are unconstitutional because:

1. They are outside the powers conferred on congress to regulate interstate commerce.
2. They encroach on powers conferred on the states, in violation of the tenth amendment.
3. The limitations on wages and hours of labor violate the fifth amendment.
4. The N. I. R. A. delegates judicial power to the president.
5. The N. I. R. A. delegates legislative power to the president.

THREE ALARMS OF FIRE ARE ANSWERED

Firemen answered three alarms of fire over the week-end, the damage being slight.

At 2:30, Sunday morning, firemen were called to the home of Clifford Session, of 4 Hobart street, where a mattress was found afire, due to someone smoking in bed. The damage was approximately $10.

At 4:55 p. m., Sunday, firemen were summoned to 1714 Moravia street by an alarm from box 57, where they found a chimney burning out.

At 8 o'clock last evening, they were called to East Washington street by an alarm from box 46, where they found a small blaze about the engine of a car owned by Donald Dawson. The damage was negligible.

Home-Grown Revolution.
The Lion And Lenin.

Was The Race Fixed?
Another Gustavus Adolphus.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

H. G. WELLS, mentally as young as he was 50 years ago, who thinks the human race will be perfect some fine day, but must have a bad time of it in the meanwhile, sailed for home yesterday, predicting that America will face a "home-grown revolution."

This revolution, according to Mr. Wells, "won't be Communist, or Fascist, but thoroughly American." Mr. Wells doesn't say what kind of American revolution that would be. He does say that Senator Huey Long will not be dictator in charge.

WISELY, Mr. Wells says foreigners visiting the United States should leave after two weeks or stay at least two years. If a visitor stays more than two weeks, he loses his first impressions, they become blurred; if he stays two years, he knows something.

WHILE the United States gasps, respectable British honobooks with communistic Russia. Capt. Eden, King George's representative, lord privy seal of Great Britain, spends happy hours with Stalin, Communist leader.

There is a "gala ballet" much like those organized by the ancient Czars, charming young ladies in tulle skirts, hopping around on their toes. And most remarkable, the Communist orchestra plays first the British national anthem, "God Save the King," then the Communist song, "Internationale."

THE ENGLISH song asks God to preserve the King "Long to reign over us." The "Internationale" says, "Arise Ye Prisoners of Starvation, Arise Ye Wretches of the Earth."

The Lion and Lenin lying down together, will not surprise the businesslike British, who do not share our horror of Communism. Perhaps they believe it will not work out.

Lord Beaverbrook said: "Of Course, we deal with Russia. We deal with cannibals if they have anything we want to buy."

MRS. GOLD, who won more than $143,000 on the "Grand National" through the Irish Sweepstakes, and other American winners, may thank some unknown for their winnings. The favorite in the race, Golden Miller, acted strangely in the Grand National and again yesterday in the "Champion Steeple-chase." In both races, the animal, usually a perfect performer, refused to jump. His jockey, thrown off, says: "His heart refused."

THOUSANDS of racetrack gamblers in England believe that some kind of drug, or other interference with the horse, made it impossible for him to win. That will arouse thoughtfulness in some that would have had a share of the "big money" had Golden Miller arrived first.

There would be less gambling on races if the public knew the amount of swindling that accompanies racing.

SCANDINAVIAN countries, Denmark, Sweden, next Tuesday will discuss the question of Hitler's fighting mood, and their protection. That will not be difficult if Sweden can produce a new crop of fighters like Gustavus Adolphus, and Charles the Twelfth, and one statesman like Oxeensterna. Those three, plus a chemist like Nobel, might solve any problem.

NRA WANTS, to live two years more. Next June, barring new legislation, it dies a natural death. Senator Borah fights the new lease of life, President Green of the American Federation of Labor fights for it.

Why not protect workers by guaranteeing decent pay and reasonable working hours, then give American business men a chance to show what they can do? They surely have had something to do with building up this country since the days of forests and Indians. Our old, long prosperity cannot have been all accidental; builders of railroads, factories, stores surely must have had something to do with it.

WALTER H. MCGEE, leader of the gang that kidnaped Mary McElroy, daughter of the city manager of Kansas City, discovers that Missouri meant it when the law was passed punishing kidnapping with death.

Mary McElroy is safe at home with her family and Walter H. McGee will be executed on May 10, by decision of Missouri's supreme court. This is calculated to discourage kidnapping as an industry.

AN AGED Negro doctor, known in the part he played as "De Lawd" is dead, leaving $20,000, very little for one successful as he was. It makes no difference to "De Lawd" now, fortunately, and he will be comforted by the discovery that the real Lord of the universe has not, and never had, as much as one penny of money, does not need any.

Agreements Reached In Two Court Cases

Verdicts Rendered For Plaintiffs Under Instructions From The Court

Verdict by agreement were taken in the first two cases called for trial in common pleas court this morning. One of the cases, which was before Judge James A. Chambers, was that of Glenn A. Stahl, administrator in the estate of Thomas McDermott, use Fred D. Polster against Bessie P. Martin, executrix in the estate of the late Charles A. Martin.

This was a case involving a balance alleged to be due on a mortgage. Verdict agreed upon was for $6,958.69 in favor of the plaintiff.

The other case settled was that of Sarah A. Tanner against John A. Baker, involving a coal bill. Verdict agreed upon was in favor of the plaintiff for $225.

Settlement of these cases made it necessary for the court to await the arrival of attorneys in two other cases as they had not expected them to come up so soon.

Does Goat Milk Cure?

In 1916 The Milk Goat World quoted from Dr. Knox of Danbury, Connecticut: "I have practiced medicine for over forty years as a general practitioner and consultant. In the last twenty years office practice mostly. I have had hundreds of babies and children brought to my office in all stages of malnutrition. Most of them had been treated by skillful physicians with all the generally approved foods and medication in vogue, without benefit, and death seemed inevitable in many cases. I (Dr. Knox) was the last resort of many anxious parents. All these little sufferers were put upon Goat Milk whenever it could be obtained as soon as possible. I wish to state that in every case improvement and good health followed. Dr. Freeman, I challenge the medical world to name a drug of which that can be said."

Goat Milk, Pure, Wholesome and Free From Tubercular Infection, makes the most perfect food for invalids and children, particularly those having Weak Digestion, or those recovering from disease. I can give many instances of chronic Dyspepsia, Gastritis, Malnutrition, etc., in Adults, That Are Today in Perfect Health by its use alone through my recommendation. It is most gratifying for me to see today, prominent medical men in most of the medical journals of Europe and America recommending the use of goats milk for the identical purposes I have cited. Also frequent articles in the great daily papers and magazines calling people's attention to the manifold service to humanity of our most valuable little friend, The Milk Goat.

Compared to all drugs known, it is entitled to be called the Elixir of Life. What more shall we say about Goat's Milk? In the first place the Milk of the Goat is a Perfect Food. It has been used for countless ages by the different races throughout the world. There is no question but that it is a universal food for the people of different races that live in various climates, and there are no reports on record which indicate that goat's milk was not successfully adapted to their needs. Goat's Milk makes for the development of the young for it is a concentrated food containing many valuable substances which are obtained from the plants that the goats themselves consume. For instance a quart of goat milk is equal in food value to any of the following:

Eight eggs, thirteen ounces of bread, three ounces of butter, two fourths pounds of lean meat, two pounds of potatoes, six pounds of spinach, seven pounds of lettuce, four pounds of cabbage, one half pound wheat flour, one fourth pound cheese, five pounds of turnips, four pounds of beets, three pounds of cod fish, one pound of chicken, five pounds of lobster, six pounds of squash, nine large oranges.

Goat milk contains elements which repair bodily waste. The little in goat milk helps build bone and muscle.

With regard to vitamins so essential to the normal growth of children, which is found in certain foods and without which we could not live and because vitamins cannot be stored in the body, we are obliged to eat proper foods that contain them.

Miners Observe "Mitchell Day"

Day Is Set Aside For Tribute To John Mitchell, Father Of Eight-Hour Day

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 1.—Peace reigned throughout the Appalachian district today as thousands of miners happy over the truce that averted a paralyzing strike, joined in the celebration of "Mitchell Day."

This day, set aside in honor of John Mitchell, father of the eight-hour day, was a holiday for the mining industry. It was marked by a series of mass meetings and parades in which approximately 200,000 miners of Western Pennsylvania participated.

Strikes Happy Note

Workers agreed to delay pressing demands for a 30-hour, five-day week until June 16 struck a happy note in the majority of mining towns. Workers, thriving on the step up in operations of the past few weeks, were content to continue on the old wage scale for another 10 weeks.

"We'll be in a better position in June to negotiate a favorable agreement with the operators than we are now," commented District President P. T. Fagan of the United Mine Workers. "We have not yielded to the operators' demands in any sense whatever, but we did acquiesce in this truce proposal out of consideration for President Roosevelt and the National Industrial Recovery Board."

MAKES DIFFICULT SHOT
Charles W. Perry, A. T. & T. employee, and resident of Wilmington avenue, one of the "early bird" golfers of New Castle, made the No. 10 hole, 366 yards, at Castle Hills in an eagle two yesterday afternoon. His second shot to the green with a brassie tricked in the hole. He was playing in a foursome with fellow employees of the A. T. & T.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

In the passing of D. E. Park, amateur baseball and thousands of railroaders have lost one of their best friends. He played baseball, managed teams, umpired and also was a commissioner in the Lawrence County Baseball league. He was the wreck master on the Pennsylvania R. R. wreck train and many friends will mourn his loss. He was one of the few left handers to make a success out of catching and when he led the P. R. R. team he managed one of the best amateur teams seen in this section. When his playing days were ended he was appointed as an umpire in the Lawrence league then became one of the commissioners. His decisions were just and now at the age of 58 the Great Umpire has ruled "Lefty" safe at home. His body is to be laid away in Valley View cemetery this afternoon.

Helen Jacobs, U. S. titleholder, won the Egyptian lawn tennis singles championship yesterday when she defeated Miss E. M. Dearman, of England, 6-2, 6-0 in the final round at Alexandria.

Harry Cooper, of Chicago stroke his way into the lead yesterday in the $2,000 Metropolitan open golf tourney with a 36 hole total of 142 at Atlanta.

Today we are showing the Spring suit that you should be wearing tomorrow... the browns... the grays... the sport suits that will dot the well dressed 's on Washington Street before the week is out.

Come... you know darn well you are going to look at Spring suits soon. Putting the matter off is like kissing your wife's picture when your wife is in the next room.

Davis Walsh Picks Yankees As Winners In 1935 Pennant Race

Likes Tigers To Finish Second And Cleveland Indians To Finish Third

Thinks Yanks Very Much Improved Team, Says Indians Lack Defense

(This is the first of a series of two articles by Davis J. Walsh, selecting the probable order of the finish in the 1935 major league pennant race.)

By DAVIS J. WALSH International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, April 1.—I'd hate to think that this was going to affect anybody's disposition, causing them to become morose and dejected, but, after thinking very deeply, I've decided that the Detroit Tigers, champions of 1934, are not going to win the American league pennant this year. Instead, I'm taking the New York Yankees, who probably don't figure at all, unless you happen to be impressed with the importance of pitching and hitting.

Combs Is Glad.

I wouldn't want to say that Ruth won't be missed. The fact is that he will be—by Combs, the center-fielder who ran his shoes into spats for the last two years, chasing everything that was hit to right center. In other words, the Yankees are improved in right field with Selkirk and Hill; Combs has made a complete comeback, after finishing 15th in a head-on crash with the wall in St. Louis, and Chapman is due for the biggest year of his life. It is, in fact, strictly a better ball club, with a fair but improving infield, a lot of pitching and the punch, and anybody who is better in the American league can and probably will win the pennant.

Likes Yankees.

Anyhow, I reckon the 1935 race this way, with due consideration for the fact that the only difference between a pennant-picker and anybody else is that the former has to do his guessing in public:

1. New York Yankees.
2. Detroit Tigers.
3. Cleveland Indians.
4. Boston Red Sox.
5. Philadelphia Athletics.
6. Washington Senators.
7. St. Louis Browns.
8. Chicago White Sox.

Any one of five clubs, the Yankees, Tigers, Indians, Red Sox and Athletics, can win this pennant, the league being just that kind. I think the Tigers will fail because Auker, the underhand gent, won't be so good his second time out and that infield just won't stand up again. The Indians could have won with Knickerbocker at shortstop. They won't without him. Their pitching is no better than as good.

Grove Is Shape.

The Red Sox will either finish fourth—or win the pennant. Grove pitched five scoreless innings against the Phillies in Florida yesterday and, if he can win 15 to 18 games this time, the Sox may start winning and forget to stop. They haven't got a first rate ball club. But neither has anybody else in the league.

The Athletics are potential first division, especially if their young pitchers come on. Foxx will start behind the bat but, of course, finish on first base. This will make a good infield but bad catching. Somehow, you can't quite figure the Athletics as being better than a tough team to beat any time, anywhere.

PIRATES DEFEAT WHITE SOX 9-7

(International News Service) SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 1.—The Chicago White Sox rested from their exhibition labors against the Pittsburgh Pirates here today after taking a 9 to 7 beating at El Paso yesterday. A bright spot was Zeke Bonura's two home runs. Marty Hopkins' single, double and triple. Al Simmons' double, his third hit of the season and his first against big league pitching.

THE SPORT PATROL

By JOHN J. MAKER, JR.

THE WASHINGTON SENATORS

Whatever the Washington players think of their chances in the coming season they should at least feel reasonably certain of bettering their record of 1934. Plagued by an injury jinx, the like of which probably never happened before in the league, Washington was unable to keep a team of major league calibre intact for more than a few games in succession.

The final day of the season found the team in seventh place and everyone glad that the campaign was over. But such wholesale injuries to a team occur only once in a decade, so now Bucky Harris can work with the squad feeling safe in believing that nothing but a charge will have to be in order for the 1935 Senators.

Monte Weaver, Earl Whitehill and Bumps Hadley are expected to bring home quite a few victories. The other two starting hurlers will be selected from a trio consisting of Bob Burke, Ed Linke, and Wally Stewart. Sydney Cohen, Leon Pettit, Jack Russell, and Al Thomas round out the staff but one of them will have to be removed from the roster when the May 15 player cut comes.

Hadley, obtained from the Browns, was with the Senators from 1926 to 1931 so he is by no means a stranger. Ed Linke, a promising rookie of last season until his arm went numb, is certain of a starting assignment if his flipper is all right. Leon Pettit, a rookie at 29 who has had extensive minor league experience, is being counted upon as a valuable relief hurler.

Syd Cohen, a younger brother of Andy who will be remembered as John McGraw's infield Jewish helper, is listed as a pitcher, but he can also play first and the outfield. He has an excellent chance of sticking to duty by his versatility, at least until Joe Kuhel is definitely in shape.

Probably no one individual will have more to do with the success or failure of the team than Cliff Bolton. If he bats and catches as Clark Griffith and Bucky Harris believe he can, there is nothing to fear, but if he falls below expectations in either department Washington will be little better than they were in 1934.

Sam Holbrook and Jack Redmond, the other catchers on the roster, are inexperienced rookies with nothing higher than one season of class A minor league ball. Both of these youngsters have hit the headlines all spring as though they were established stars but a squint at their records reveals very little.

In fact, you can hardly see the batting average of Redmond which amounted to a mere .212. Just what a fellow with a National association mark like that can do in the majors you can imagine. Holbrook had a higher mark while performing in the same circuit but he didn't hit 300.

Joe Kuhel will be on first if his leg is in shape. Buddy Myer is a fixture at second, and Cecil Travis is still improving as a third baseman. Joe Cronin once said that Travis was destined to be one of the game's greatest hitters and the youngster has given him no reason to reverse his opinion so far.

Red Kress and Lyn Lary will fight for the shortstop berth but both are far from being a Cronin. Kress has the jump so far but hasn't the job cinched as yet. Ossie Bluege will be a general handy-man, filling in at second, short or third when necessary. Johnny Barry is listed as an infielder on the roster but will be used as a coach exclusively after May 15.

In the outfield, the veteran trio of Marvish, Stone and Schulte are performing well but the latter two are having a terrific fight for their berths with a pair of recruits from the International League, Al Powell and Fred Hunter. Latest camp reports state that Powell has already landed Schulte's centerfield job and Sington may alternate in right with Jonathon Stone.

Soft Ball League To Meet Tonight

Tonight at the "Y" at 8 o'clock the managers and officials of the New Castle Softball association will meet for special business and to give out contracts to the managers of the various teams. It is imperative that all managers attend the meeting. No players will be allowed to attend. It is planned to open the league about April 15, if the playing fields can be put into shape by that time.

Cut Down At Opening
Of Market(International News Service)
NEW YORK, April 1.—Opening gains in the rails, running to a point and more in the Union Pacific were quickly cut down by profit-taking in the stock market today.

Oils were in demand but were held in check by persistent liquidation in Socony Vacuum.

The steel shares held narrowly. Allied Chemical rose more than a point and aviation was stronger, with Douglas up sharply at the start. Utilities were quiet, and most of the market was steady. National Distillers was stronger. Mining issues were mixed.

Cotton was weak, and grains irregular. A better tone in second grade rails was outstanding in the bond market.

Scoring Honors; Frisco
A. C. Beats "E" Club

ELLWOOD CITY, April 1.—Finishing passers, twice champions of the Shelby Interscholastic Basketball League, obtained vengeance over the All Stars of the Christy Park Works of McKeesport, by coming through from behind in the last quarter to eke out a 36-34 victory at the Shelby Auditorium on Saturday night.

It was a close and thrilling game, all the way through. The local champs having their full squad available for the game were a real match for the visitors. Finishing jumped to a 11-8 lead in the initial period and made it 18-14 at the half. They continued to display their superiority in the third quarter when the score was 25-18 in their favor.

The local champs got a real scare in the final chapter when some sharp shooting by McFarlane, ex-Penn State star, and Guffey, gave them a six point lead with two minutes of play left. At this stage the locals put on a brilliant rally by making four consecutive baskets to win. Ursu, giant center, started it off. Frew followed soon with another two-pointer, and then Friedhoff deadlocked the score at 34 all with a shot from mid-court. With very little time remaining Cavalier registered from mid-floor for the winning bucket.

As before Justine again starred for the locals with six field goals and one foul for a total of 13 points. His opponent McFarlane did likewise. Guffey scored 11 points for the losers.

Frisco A. C. Wins
In the preliminary game the Frisco A. C. defeated the "E" Club of the local high school 33-21. Counting up their free throws proved to be the deciding issue for the victors.

Arnold, Friedhoff and Smith led the attack for Frisco, while Cole, Luxenberg and Robuck were good for the losers.

After the games the visitors were tendered a dinner in the dining room of the clubhouse. A dance followed in the auditorium.

Helpful Hints On How To Worry

One of the first rules, of course, is always to remember the future. Keep it foremost in your mind—but lay no plans for it. Seize no opportunities. Save nothing. Invest nothing. Do nothing. Just fret—and fume. Be utterly miserable. Worry about yourself as you will be when old age comes. Worry about your children, who will be leaving school if you die. Worry about your wife. Learn to wince when you think of her attempt to provide all that you neglected to provide. Picture her looking for a job—your favorite son shouting "Extree!" on the street corner. Do this thing right. Learn to look worried even if you have to practice in front of your mirror. Of course, if you prefer not to worry, you might look into this thing called Life Insurance. With the help of your telephone book, you will be able to locate intelligent agents representing this 70-year-old company with nearly a billion dollars of insurance in force.

Rev. S. B. Copeland Preaches Farewell

Large Crowds Attend Services
At Third U. P. Church
On Sunday

With the church auditorium packed to the doors, Rev. S. B. Copeland bade goodbye to the Third United Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. The sermon marked the end of a fourteen year pastorate in the East Side church.

Taking as his subject "Finally" Rev. Copeland reviewed some of the events of his pastorate here. He came here as a young minister from Harrisville, Pa., to a church with a small congregation and a tiny church. Since coming here he has trebled the congregation and the church building is a large one located at the corner of Adams and East Washington streets.

Expressing his appreciation of the fine spirit of co-operation the congregation had evinced towards him, Rev. Copeland urged the same spirit of co-operation for the minister who succeeds him, who ever he may be. Until his successor is chosen Rev. Copeland urged the members of the congregation to stand together and work even harder for the success of the church.

Rev. Copeland recently accepted a call to Wheeling, W. Va., and on next Sunday will preach his first sermon there. It is probable that his family will remain in New Castle until the end of school.

At the close of the church service many of the congregation stayed to wish Rev. Copeland a personal farewell. A meeting of the session was held and an announcement made that a congregational meeting would be held on April 9 to transact some highly important business. At that time trustees and deacons will be elected, and a congregational chairman, secretary and treasurer named.

Annon and others in the party were enroute here from Steubenville and Horzinger, walking to Toronto, had stopped to ask a "lift" when the accident occurred. The body of Annon, sole support of a 75 year old mother, was brought here. His neck was broken.

Special Services At Calvary Church

Great Interest Being Shown In
Evangelistic Services
This Week

Sunday services at Calvary Presbyterian church in East New Castle drew large crowds yesterday showing great interest in the evangelistic services being conducted.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. Raymond Fredericks, preached an appropriate sermon showing from the scriptures that it has always been the express purpose and will of God to save every household. He urged the Christians of every family circle represented to earnestly work and pray for the salvation of other members of their circle.

Rev. Claude Downs, of Petrolia, who will be the speaker each night this week, except Saturday, preached a forceful sermon in the evening on "Repentance and Faith." Following a spirited songfest, led by Charles Harris, an altar service was conducted to which there were numerous responses.

Rev. Downs was the former pastor of the Savannah M. E. church, and his many friends will want to hear him again this week.

Increase Likely For C.M.T.C. Group

With increase appropriations for military purposes, it seems reasonable to assume that the allocation for the Citizens Military Training Camps. For this reason, Major W. Fulton Jackson, chairman of Lawrence county for the CMTC applications is hopeful that more applications will be received here.

For several years there have been few basic or new applications approved. This year it is hoped that Lawrence county will go back to its former allotment of men, 39. Applications turned in to Major Jackson will be given prompt attention.

Acceptance in the CMTC means a month in an eastern military camp, with plenty of time allowed for sight-seeing and recreation. It also gives the youth who accepts such a course a short experience in military training.

ELLWOOD TAX COLLECTION DISCUSSED

Editor News
New Castle, Pa.
Dear Sir:—

Bill No. 620—now in committee in the state legislature proposing to do away with all tax collectors, if passed, would do away with people paying on the installment or partial payment plan, and would compel the people of Ellwood City to travel to New Castle, which is the county seat of Lawrence County, to pay their taxes, and would mean an added expense to the taxpayer.

The commission paid to the present tax collector in Ellwood City, is the lowest paid to any tax collector in the state of Pennsylvania. If the proposed plan becomes effective it will cost the borough and school 2 per cent of the total amount of the duplicates, which is a greater sum than is now paid.

The proposed system has been tried in the counties of Cambria and Indiana (special Act 1872, repealed 1927) and has been found undesirable.

The present system of collecting local taxes has been put through the great and slowly grinding mill of experience. It has been put on the scales of political economy and has not been found wanting now.

The passage of this proposed legislation will result in a slight saving when you figure the salaries of the respective county treasurers and their clerks, etc. against the present cost as provided by our current system of collecting taxes. But, we are positive, beyond any question of doubt, that this saving would be more than offset, at least four-fold, by reason of non-collection and thus burden unnecessary hardships on the good tax payers of our Commonwealth and play right into the hands of the people who never did like to pay their taxes and never will, and gloat in giving the collectors all the trouble they can.

Anyone opposing the proposed system, to have taxes collected at the county seat, should make it known to our representative, Mr. James Kelso, members of House Committee, now in Harrisburg.

A TAX PAYER.

Glacier Priest Tells Of Alaska

Father Hubbard Tells Of Adventures In Alaska To Local Audience

Speaking in a conversational tone that quickly won him over to his audience of approximately 1,100 persons, Father Bernard R. Hubbard, S. J., the "Glacier Priest," appeared on the Cathedral stage on Saturday night to relate experiences of his 1934 expedition into Alaska's volcanic wonderland.

Father Hubbard spoke under the auspices of the Lions club and proceeds of his lecture will go to defray expenses incurred during the coming year in the club's major service project, preventative and curative work among the Lawrence county blind.

The distinguished explorer and geologist was introduced by Ezra D. Marvin, member of the local club and the district governor of Lions Clubs in Western Pennsylvania. He told his audience, in his brief introduction of the club's work for the blind.

Long Film Is Enjoyed

While Father Hubbard's words brought to the audience thrills which he personally experienced, a 10,000 foot motion picture film which took almost two hours to show brought to the eye what the ear may have missed.

The film trailed the expedition into every nook and corner of the "Valley of 10,000 Smokes" where Father Hubbard and his party went.

1934 Trip Set Record

Father Hubbard was making his eighth trip into the volcanic land last year. Never, however, did he meet with such success as he did on the latest. Scientists and others claim it without parallel in respect to adventures encountered, hardships endured, new facts of science uncovered and practical results obtained.

The audience here probably found its greatest thrills from those parts of the film which showed huge slabs of ice as big as skyscrapers tumbling into the sea from ice cliffs higher than the Washington monument and the playful but hardy "volcano pups."

Dr. A. H. Borland, president of the club, reported that the proceeds collected were not as yet compiled today. George L. Smith was general chairman for this season's lecture.

For half an hour before the lecture the audience enjoyed the playing of Mrs. Jessie Nelson Reed on the magnificent Cathedral organ.

On Court House Hill

James Mitchell, who was convicted of manslaughter in connection with the shooting of his wife, Evaline Mitchell, was taken to the Western penitentiary Saturday by Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard. Mitchell is to serve from six to twelve years.

In the desertion and non-support case of Margaret Grim against George H. Grim, the court has made an order directing Grim to pay his wife $25 per month. The money is to be paid to Parole Officer Jack M. Dunlap, in accordance with the new rules governing such cases. Bond in the sum of $500 for faithful performance is required.

Final account of Hugh A. Kyle, administrator in the estate of the late G. M. Patterson has been approved and distribution ordered by Judge Chambers. Total assets were $18,512.65; total credits, $13,266.16. Balance for distribution, $5,246.49. Of this amount $2,621.99 goes to Gertrude Kyle and $2,622 to J. Clifford Wallace.

All of the superior court judges, seven in number, have accepted an invitation of the Lawrence County Bar Association to be present at the annual banquet to be held at the Field Club on the evening of April 12th. It will be quite an honor to have such a distinguished body at the meeting. The superior court will be sitting in Pittsburgh on that date, which is the reason why it will be possible for the judges to come. In addition, it is expected that judges from surrounding counties, and some of the attorneys will be present. This will be the first time that the superior court judges have ever been at a banquet held here. Several years ago, however, judges of the supreme court attended a local banquet.

Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard and Deputy Elmer Taylor sold seven-teen properties listed for sheriff sale this morning. There were few bidders present aside from attorneys representing the mortgagees.

Maybe You Have Money In The Bank

It may surprise you to know it, but you may have some money in any one of the banks in New Castle that has slipped your memory. It hasn't slipped the bank's memory, and don't think we're trying to be facetious in suggesting that anybody could have money in the bank and not know it.

Every bank in New Castle has a list of accounts that haven't been active for years. The money has laid there, the owner has paid no attention to it, and if it isn't lifted for 14 years it is escheated to the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Large Sums
This does not mean a savings account that the owner doesn't withdraw, for the most part; it means checking accounts, although there are instances where depositors have received sums ranging up to $500 which they know nothing about.

One man received nearly $500 a short time ago which he did not know belonged to him. He had transferred his business to a relative to run for him; the relative closed the business out and died, and it developed that nearly $500 was in the bank, the property of the living brother.

A woman in another city received a notice from a local bank recently asking her to come in and take care of several hundred dollars that belonged to her. She thought the bank was joking, but she finally came in and took the money.

There is a balance of nearly $250 in one of the banks which belongs to a musical organization that existed here some years ago. Since 1928 nothing has been done about the money. In this case the treasurer is in New Castle and is known to the bank.

Goes to the State
There are hundreds of accounts that total a dime a quarter, or less than a dollar. These are balances of accounts which had not been properly kept by the owner. It is amazing to see the list of accounts that have not been bothered for years. Where such accounts exist the bank carries them for 14 years and then under the law escheats them to the commonwealth. Before this is done the bank makes every effort to get in touch with the owner.

After an estate is escheated the owner can get it by going through considerable red tape.

In the meantime check up your accounts and see if you have one lying in the bank you have forgotten.

Pennsy 'Honor Roll' Men Hold Distinction

Retired Rail Groups Probably Without Parallel In Nation Today

Two groups of retired employees, which are believed to be without parallel in the records of any other company or business in the world, are disclosed in the annual report of the Pennsylvania railroad's pension department for 1934.

The first group consists of a list of 51 men carried on the pension rolls, or "roll of honor," each of whom, at the close of 1934, had attained the age of 90 years or over. The second group is composed of 49 men, each of whom had worked for the company 55 years or more at the time of his retirement.

The combined age of the 90-year veterans—the "grand old men of railroading"—was 4,651 years. The dean of the corps, Joseph E. Jones, formerly supervisor of signals on the Philadelphia division, is now in his 100th year, having celebrated his 99th birthday on September 29, 1934.

Annual Y. W. Campaign To Be Launched

Annual Y. W. C. A. Membership, Ingathering Will Open On Wednesday

PRESENT MEMBERS SENDING RENEWALS

With renewals of memberships already flowing in, the vane of the Y. W. C. A.'s annual membership drive is pointing quite definitely toward success.

Formal opening of the campaign will take place in the form of an enthusiastic dinner-meeting of the 95 appointed workers, Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, and the search for new members will continue for two weeks, with the final report on Wednesday, April 17.

Hearty Response
Dr. Mildred Rogers, chairman of the membership committee, has received several interesting letters in the past several days with the 28 renewals of memberships which have been sent to the association. One is from Mrs. S. E. McCleary, of this city, who recently observed her 91st birthday. It follows, in part:

413 Highland Ave.,
New Castle, Pa.

Dear Doctor:
I am enclosing a one dollar bill. I want it to be in before the canvass begins. I can get my membership card some time when I am in the Y. W. We must keep the Y. W. alive and working.

Very sincerely,
MRS. S. E. MCCLEARY.

Another letter was sent by a member who moved to another city several years ago. It follows, in part:

Dear Dr. Rogers:
I am glad you reminded me of my dues to the Y. W. C. A. I am sending you five dollars so that, if I should be among the army of jobless next year, I will be paid up in advance. If I am fortunate enough to continue in my interesting work this is not an advance payment but only a little help toward work this year.

The 95 board members, committee members and club representatives who make up the team of workers are now responding to the request for lists of 20 women and girls whom they will see during the membership campaign.

Goal Is Thousand
They are notifying Miss Margaret White, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., and the lists are being checked off on a master file so that there will be as little duplication as possible. It is believed that a larger number of women and girls of the community will be approached this time than ever before and it is hoped that the number of memberships will reach the proposed goal of 1,000. A particular effort will be made to get in touch with all those people who were members of the association at one time but who have not been contacted in recent membership ingatherings.

At the present time the New Castle Young Women's Christian Association has a total membership of 650. This is larger than in former years and indicates that a renewed interest and desire to help support the worthy institution has grown in the hearts of the women and girls of the community during the past several years.

Dr. Rogers announces that workers cards will be given out to the following women at the opening dinner on Wednesday evening:

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

TENTH YEAR IS REACHED BY MINISTER

Rev. W. W. Sniff Has Served
Ten Years As Pastor Of Local Christian Church

Rev. W. W. Sniff on Sunday completed his 10th year as pastor of the Madison Avenue Christian church. In recognition of the anniversary there was a program of special music presented at the church and Rev. Sniff, at the morning service, delivered a sermon appropriate to the occasion in which he looked back over the years of his service and ahead to the work of the future.

Rev. Sniff has been a minister for 22 years, seven of which were spent as pastor of the First Christian church on the public square. At the completion of those seven years he was away from New Castle for five years, and, returning, he accepted the call to the seventh ward church.

He has been very well liked here and during the decade many new members have been admitted into the church and Sunday school.

Last evening a special service was conducted by the young people, led by Miss Vera Walter, with "The Guidance of God" as the theme.

Helpful Hints On How To Worry

One of the first rules, of course, is always to remember the future. Keep it foremost in your mind—but lay no plans for it. Seize no opportunities. Save nothing. Invest nothing. Do nothing. Just fret—and fume. Be utterly miserable. Worry about yourself as you will be when old age comes. Worry about your children, who will be leaving school if you die. Worry about your wife. Learn to wince when you think of her attempt to provide all that you neglected to provide. Picture her looking for a job—your favorite son shouting "Extrem!" on the street corner. Do this thing right. Learn to look worried even if you have to practice in front of your mirror.

Of course, if you prefer not to worry, you might look into this thing called Life Insurance. With the help of your telephone book, you will be able to locate intelligent agents representing this 70-year-old company with nearly a billion dollars of insurance in force.

Rev. S. B. Copeland Preaches Farewell

Large Crowds Attend Services
At Third U. P. Church
On Sunday

With the church auditorium packed to the doors, Rev. S. B. Copeland bade goodbye to the Third United Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. The sermon marked the end of a fourteen year pastorate in the East Side church.

Taking as his subject "Finally" Rev. Copeland reviewed some of the events of his pastorate here. He came here as a young minister from Harrisville, Pa., to a church with a small congregation and a tiny church. Since coming here he has trebled the congregation and the church building is a large one located at the corner of Adams and East Washington streets.

Expressing his appreciation of the fine spirit of co-operation the congregation had evinced towards him, Rev. Copeland urged the same spirit of co-operation for the minister who succeeds him, who ever he may be. Until his successor is chosen Rev. Copeland urged the members of the congregation to stand together and work even harder for the success of the church.

Rev. Copeland recently accepted a call to Wheeling, W. Va., and on next Sunday will preach his first sermon there. It is probable that his family will remain in New Castle until the end of school.

At the close of the church service many of the congregation stayed to wish Rev. Copeland a personal farewell. A meeting of the session was held and an announcement made that a congregational meeting would be held on April 9 to transact some highly important business. At that time trustees and deacons will be elected, and a congregational chairman, secretary and treasurer named.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., April 1—Charles E. Annon, 35, pottery worker and Martin Horzsinger, 32, a hitch-hiker, of Toronto, O., were killed Sunday when they were struck by an auto while repairing a tire on the East Liverpool-Staubenville highway west of Toronto.

Logan Roddy, driver of the car in which Annon had been a passenger, George Osborne and Charles Kontner, Jr., all of East Liverpool, were standing near Annon and Horzsinger, but were unhurt.

Police said Paul Dailey, of Staubenville, was the driver of the auto which crashed into Annon and Horzsinger and wrecked the Roddy car.

Annon and others in the party were enroute here from Staubenville and Horzsinger, walking to Toronto, had stopped to ask a "lift" when the accident occurred. The body of Annon, sole support of a 75 year old mother, was brought here. His neck was broken.

Great Interest Being Shown In
Evangelistic Services
This Week

Sunday services at Calvary Presbyterian church in East New Castle drew large crowds yesterday showing great interest in the evangelistic services being conducted.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. Raymond Fredericks, preached an appropriate sermon showing from the scriptures that it has always been the express purpose and will of God to save every household. He urged the Christians of every family circle represented to earnestly work and pray for the salvation of other members of their circle.

Rev. Claude Downs, of Petrolia, who will be the speaker each night this week, except Saturday, preached a forceful sermon in the evening on "Repentance and Faith." Following a spirited songfest, led by Charles Harris, an altar service was conducted to which there were numerous responses.

Rev. Downs was the former pastor of the Savannah M. E. church, and his many friends will want to hear him again this week.

INCREASE LIKELY FOR C.M.T.C. Group

With increase appropriations for military purposes, it seems reasonable to assume that the allocation for the Citizens Military Training Camps. For this reason, Major W. Fulton Jackson, chairman of Lawrence county for the CMTC applications is hopeful that more applications will be received here.

For several years there have been few basic or new applications approved. This year it is hoped that Lawrence county will go back to its former allotment of men, 39. Applications turned in to Major Jackson will be given prompt attention.

Acceptance in the CMTC means a month in an eastern military camp, with plenty of time allowed for sight-seeing and recreation. It also gives the youth who accepts such a course a short experience in military training.

The baby has been named Richard Egbert. Mrs. La Du will be remembered as Catherine Wilson, of New Castle.

Dr. La Du is a professor of romance languages and is doing research work in Paris for a year. They sailed last July and are expected home in June.

ELLWOOD TAX COLLECTION DISCUSSED

Editor News

New Castle, Pa.

Dear Sir:—

Bill No. 620—now in committee in the state legislature proposing to do away with all tax collectors, if passed, would do away with people paying on the installment or partial payment plan, and would compel the people of Ellwood City to travel to New Castle, which is the county seat of Lawrence County, to pay their taxes, and would mean an added expense to the tax payer.

The commission paid to the present tax collector in Ellwood City, is the lowest paid to any tax collector in the state of Pennsylvania. If the proposed plan becomes effective, it will cost the borough and school 2 per cent of the total amount of the duplicates, which is a greater sum than is now paid.

The proposed system has been tried in the counties of Cambria and Indiana (special Act 1872, repealed 1927) and has been found undesirable.

The present system of collecting local taxes has been put through the great and slowly grinding mill of experience. It has been put on the scales of political economy and has not been found wanting now.

The passage of this proposed legislation will result in a slight saving when you figure the salaries of the respective county treasurers and their clerks, etc. against the present cost as provided by our current system of collecting taxes. But, we are positive, beyond any question of doubt, that this saving would be more than offset, at least four-fold, by reason of non-collection and thus burden unnecessary hardships on the good tax payers of our Commonwealth and play right into the hands of the people who never did like to pay their taxes and never will, and gloat in giving the collectors all the trouble they can.

Anyone opposing the proposed system, to have taxes collected at the county seat, should make it known to our representative, Mr. James Kelso, members of House Committee, now in Harrisburg.

A TAX PAYER.
